8. Requesting Procedures

A person who wishes to obtain access to a record of the Company must submit a request in the prescribed form, using the contact details of the Information Officer set out in this manual. The request must be made in writing and must provide sufficient detail to enable the Company to identify the record requested and the right that the requester seeks to exercise or protect, where applicable.

The requester must provide:

- Full name and contact details.
- Proof of authority if the request is made by a representative.
- A clear description of the record requested.
- The form of access required.
- A postal or email address in South Africa for correspondence.
- An explanation of the right to be exercised or protected, where the request is made in terms of PAIA.

Once the request is received, the Information Officer will:

- Record and acknowledge the request.
- Check whether the request is sufficiently detailed and complies with PAIA.
- Notify the requester of any request fee, access fee, or deposit that may apply.
- Consider the request in accordance with PAIA and any applicable grounds for refusal.
- Provide a written decision within the statutory period, or notify the requester of any lawful extension.

If access is granted, the record will be provided in the form requested, where reasonably possible, after the applicable fees have been paid. If access is refused, the Company will provide written reasons for the refusal and the requester’s available remedies.

If the request is unclear, incomplete, or does not contain enough information to identify the record, the Information Officer may ask the requester to clarify or supplement the request before it is processed further.

Requests should be sent to the Information Officer at the Company’s postal address, physical address, email address, or fax number, as set out in the Contact Particulars section of this manual.
